Shelter visited: Members of Rescue Ink, a group of animal advocates, have been in Forrest City the last couple of days. On Wednesday afternoon they visited the Forrest City animal shelter. Pictured, from left, are member Stevie D, volunteer Brian Hodge, and members Eric B and Scott the Knife, along with a dog named Chaos. The Rescue Ink members were giving him some dog behavioral tips. They have also met with members of the Forrest City Area Humane Society, Police Chief Dwight Duch and Mayor Gordon McCoy.
